Timothy D. Matlack named President and Chief Executive Officer of Delta Solutions & Technologies, Inc.

Reston, VA; January 6, 2010 - Delta Solutions & Technologies, Inc., a fast-growing provider of federal financial management systems, IT services and consulting to the U.S. Government, today announced that Timothy D. Matlack has been appointed the company's new President and Chief Executive Officer.

Matlack succeeds Delta Solutions' founder and previous CEO Jeff Elms, who remains with the firm as Chairman. Matlack will assume full operational responsibility for the company, effective immediately.

Matlack comes to Delta Solutions with over 30 years of experience in consulting and technology-related professional services. He most recently served as Chief Executive of Wipro Consulting, the global consulting arm of India-based Wipro Ltd., and he also served as Chief Executive of Wipro's global energy and utilities business. Earlier, Matlack held significant leadership roles at Fairfax, VA-based American Management Systems, Inc. (AMS – now part of CGI), where he founded AMS's federal financial systems practice and built its substantial presence in the federal financial management market.

“The Board of Directors and I are continuing our investment in Delta Solutions’ growth by recruiting Tim, who has a strong track record as a senior executive, strategic thinker and leader of professional services companies in the management systems arena,” said Jeff Elms. “We are confident that Tim’s experience in federal financial systems, combined with his special knowledge of the challenges of scaling a high growth company, are the right mix to navigate Delta Solutions to the next level of growth.”

“I am delighted to be joining Delta Solutions at this exciting time,” said Tim Matlack. “Under Jeff’s leadership, the firm matured from a young, entrepreneurial enterprise to a successful company in government IT services. We now have great opportunities to accelerate our growth and to enhance Delta Solutions reputation as a key partner for our clients while continuing to provide a stimulating environment for our staff. ”

Matlack is Board Chairman of the India-US World Affairs Institute, Board President of the Independent School Chairpersons Association, a trustee of The Hackley School, and an Advisory Board member of the Center for International Business Education and Research (CIBER) at the R.H. Smith School of Business, University of Maryland. He is a graduate of Harvard Business School and Harvard College.
